In honor of Dan Twomey

- a Worcester native, we are highlighting the documentary film about a group of SUNY Cobleskill students (including the Twomey twins) on an epic goodwill adventure to universities throughout Latin America in 1961 - all in an amphibious vehicle known as the "Duck". It was a bold mission of global outreach against a Cold War backdrop with major support and funding from U.S. & International Rotary Clubs. Matt Twomey, his son, produced the film with archival footage.
